

6 Benefits of Our Partner Program

The Moki Momentum Partner Program is a channel-first, customer-focused community MDM partner program where you can grow your business alongside Moki. Through our program, you can choose from the various partnership types that best fit your MDM needs. Keep reading to explore the benefits of being one of our partners.

1

DEDICATED PARTNER ACCOUNT MANAGER

Through the partner account manager, you can create separate tenants for personalized device management. The portal provides access to account details, subscription monitoring, and support, enabling you to manage both your devices and your customers' in one centralized location.

2

TRAINING & EDUCATION

We offer sales training and live sessions to quickly get you up to speed on supporting customers with our MDM solution, along with a comprehensive knowledge base for in-depth learning and support.

3

ACCESS TO SUPPORT

We offer dedicated support through direct contact, ensuring your MDM solution performs optimally for you or your customers. Our developmental support system teaches you how to maximize its use and swiftly addresses any issues via phone, email, or chat.

4

COMPETITIVE COMMISSION

The partner program features a competitive commission structure designed to reward your efforts. Through Moki, you can earn commissions based on your sales and referrals, enhancing your income while building valuable connections.

5

JOINT MARKETING CONTENT & COLLABORATION

Partners in our program benefit from collaborative marketing efforts, including co-branded content, press releases, and promotional write-ups that enhance visibility and drive engagement.

6

ADDED REVENUE STREAM

Partnering with Moki offers an added revenue stream with minimal effort on your part. Let Moki handle the heavy lifting so you can effortlessly boost your income while concentrating on your core business.

When you partner with Moki, you gain an ally for your growing business. You will get dedicated support, co-marketing, sales training, technical support, and more! Become one of our MDM partners today and discover how we can provide your customers with an excellent MDM solution.